Summer Camp Rules of Conduct for Campers

To ensure that all campers have equal opportunities to enjoy Summer Camp ; we ask that all parents thoroughly go over and make their children aware of the rules of conduct that follow. As well we ask that you make it clear to your child the consequences that will follow if any of the following are not obeyed.

1. Campers will NOT be verbally abusive to anyone. They will not swear, tease, threaten, intimidate, make rude or disrespectful remarks to counsellors, peers, or others. Names calling and foul language will not be tolerated.
2. Campers will NOT use physical aggression or violence. They will not throw things, hit, kick, push, shove, bike or spit at Counsellors, peers or others.
3. Campers will respect and cooperate with the Camp Coordinator, Assistants, volunteers and any visitors or community helpers they may encounter during camp. There will be no talking when the Camp Coordinator or Assistant is talking. Listen carefully when they are talking.
4. Campers will ask the Camp Coordinator for permission to leave their designated group area and inform them when they need to use the washrooms.
5. Campers are responsible for their own belongings (clothes, towels, lunches, etc.) CCCSA will not be responsible for lost/stolen items.
6. Campers will not bring personal toys (i.e. music players, gaming devices, skateboards, etc.) to camp unless asked to from Camp Coordinator.
7. Each camper is responsible for cleaning up after themselves.
8. Each camper will follow the safety rules when traveling on the bus.
